

“Plaintiff’s Response To Motion To Compel By Defendant Doruk” (Document No. 41) was timely filed on January 14, 2013. Defendant then failed to file a timely reply brief in support of her motion to compel, or notice of intent not to reply, as required by Local Rule 7.1 (E). Moreover, the Court issued an “Order” (Document No. 43) on February 7, 2013, stating that the “undersigned believes that the Court would benefit from a reply brief addressing the arguments in ‘Plaintiff’s Response...’ (Document No. 41),” and requiring that a reply brief or notice that the discovery dispute was resolved, “shall be filed on or before February 20, 2013.” (Document No. 43). To date, Defendant has still failed to make an appropriate filing.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED that “Defendant’s Motion To Compel Response To Defendant’s Interrogatories” (Document No. 40), is DENIED.
